

CONTOSO CORP

Business Travel & Expense Reimbursement Policy

Finance Division | Effective: January 1, 2024

Policy ID	CON-FIN-001	Effective Date	January 1, 2024
Last Reviewed	December 2023	Policy Owner	VP, Finance & Controller

1. Purpose & Scope

This policy governs the reimbursement of business travel and entertainment expenses incurred by Contoso Corp employees on behalf of the company. It applies to all employees globally. The policy aims to ensure prudent use of company funds, maintain tax compliance, and reimburse employees promptly and fairly.

2. Booking Requirements

All business travel must be booked through the Concur Travel portal or through Contoso Corp's preferred travel agency (World Travel Inc., 1-800-555-0250). Booking outside approved channels requires VP-level pre-approval. Travel should be booked at least 14 days in advance where feasible to obtain the best rates.

3. Air Travel

Trip Duration / Class	Guideline
Domestic (under 6 hrs)	Economy class required
Domestic (6 hrs or more)	Economy Plus / Comfort+ permitted
International (under 8 hrs)	Economy class required
International (8 hrs or more)	Business class permitted with VP approval
Executive Director & above	Business class permitted on all international flights

4. Hotel Accommodations

Employees should book hotels from Contoso Corp's preferred property list via Concur. Per-night rate limits (excluding taxes) are:

City Tier	Max Nightly Rate (USD)
Tier 1 (NYC, SF, Boston, DC, London, Tokyo)	$350
Tier 2 (Chicago, LA, Seattle, Toronto, Sydney)	$275
Tier 3 (All other domestic cities)	$200
Tier 4 (Developing markets)	$150

5. Meals & Per Diem

Meals are reimbursed on an actual-expense basis with receipts, subject to the following daily limits:

- Breakfast: $25
- Lunch: $35
- Dinner: $75
- Daily total: $135

Alcohol is not reimbursable as a meal expense. Meals with clients or prospects may be submitted under Entertainment (Section 6). Meal expenses for same-day local travel are not reimbursable.

6. Business Entertainment

Client entertainment (meals, events, sporting events) requires: (a) a clear business purpose documented in Concur, (b) the names and business affiliations of all attendees, and (c) prior manager approval for amounts over $200 per person. Entertainment for government officials or employees of regulated industries requires VP and Legal pre-approval regardless of amount.

7. Expense Submission

Expense reports must be submitted in Concur within 30 days of the expense date or trip completion, whichever is earlier. Receipts are required for all individual expenses over $25. Reimbursement is processed within 10 business days of manager approval. Late submissions (over 90 days) require VP approval and may be denied.

8. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

- Personal entertainment (movies, mini-bar, hotel gym fees, pay-per-view)
- Traffic violations, parking tickets, or fines of any kind
- Airline or hotel upgrades purchased independently
- Travel insurance purchased by the employee (company policy covers business travel)
- Expenses for spouse/partner/family members unless specifically pre-approved
- Gifts to employees (submit to HR; see CON-HR-008)
